

Subscribe

Past Issues

Transl

View this email in your browser

INTELLECTUALS and ARTISTS
in DEFENSE of HUMANITY
UNITED STATES

ADVISORY BOARD

Danny Glover

Actor

November 11, 2019

We'll come back and be millions.

Estela Bravo

Documentary filmmaker

Tupac Katari

Piero Gleijeses

Professor, Author

The Network in Defense of Humanity strongly condemns the fascist and racist coup d'état against the President of the Plurinational State of Bolivia, Evo Morales, the legitimate winner by more than 10 points of the elections of last October 20.

James Early

Consultant: Cultural Democracy and Statecraft Heritage Policy, African Diaspora

The Bolivian right wing in collusion with the U.S. government, the OAS and the region's right wing have resorted to extreme violence to achieve what they could never achieve against Evo at the polls.

Jane Franklin

Historian, author of Cuba and the U.S. Empire: A Chronological History

We express our most heartfelt and firm solidarity with Evo Morales, to the leadership and militancy of the Movement towards Socialism, to the native peoples and to the people of Bolivia, whose participative and protagonist democracy has been torn away.

Jose Pertierra

Attorney

We call on democrats and peoples of the world to demand respect for the political rights and physical integrity of the President, his collaborators, family members and fellow members. We reject the hunt for militants unleashed by the coup plotters and express our concern for their well-being and personal safety.

Thomas Gumbleton

Former Bishop of Detroit

Bill Hackwell

Photo Journalist

Chelis Lopez

Cultural Worker, host of Radio KPOO in San Francisco and Radio Bilingue in Oakland

We urge the immediate return to democratic norms, pressure must cease against the legitimate government of President Morales, whose constitutional mandate is fully in force, since the resignation that was forced upon him has not been democratically endorsed by the appropriate bodies.

Michael Parenti

The Democratic and Cultural Revolution must return as soon as

Subscribe	Past Issues	Transl
Paul Teitelbaum Information Technology Professional	their history and who love freedom,	That is the current course of the Great Homeland and there is no empire, however powerful it may be, capable of twisting it. Evo is the people.
Nelson Valdes Professor Emeritus, Retired, Sociology	Network in Defense of Humanity	November 11, 2019
Gayle Mclaughlin Former Mayor of Richmond, CA
Peter Schey Executive Director, Center for Human Rights and Constitutional Law
Cristina Vazquez International Vice President of Workers United-SEIU
Felix Salvador Kury Program Director & Faculty Advisor, Clinica Martin-Baro, SFSU-UCSF
Clarence Thomas Past Secretary-Treasurer ILWU Local10
Daniel Kovalik Labor and human rights lawyer, teaches International Human Rights at the University Of Pittsburgh School Of Law
Rick Sterling Investigative Journalist
Roger D. Harris Writer, Task Force on the Americas Board Member
Stephen Edward Kimber Canadian journalist, editor and broadcaster and professor at the University of King's College in Halifax, Nova Scotia
Arnold August, Arnold August, Canadian author of Cuba-U.S. Relations: Obama and Beyond
Ramon Gorsfoguel Professor, University of California Berkeley
Christopher Helali Graduate student and

Subscribe

Past Issues

Transl

Netfa Freeman

Coordinating Committee member in the Black Alliance for Peace

Copyright © 2019 Network of Networks in Defense of Humanity, All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

